

Pre-Authorization Instruction and Flow Chart

事先授权说明及操作流程

What is pre-authorization? 事先授权是什么？

Pre-authorization is a process by which an insured person obtains written approval for certain medical procedures or treatments from the insurer prior to the commencement of the proposed medical services. Your medical plan also states certain requirements on pre-authorizations.

事先授权是客户在接受某些特定的医学治疗之前，获取*GBG 书面授权担保函的过程。客户的保单计划里同样列明了事先授权的相关要求。

What are the benefits of pre-authorization? 事先授权有什么好处？

The pre-authorization is an added service to the member and includes the following benefits:

事先授权是 GBG 提供给客户的附加服务，保障以下利益：

- To ensure the member receive the maximum benefits available under the policy 确保客户享受保单条款下的最大福利
- To ensure that the services being provided or being requested are medically appropriate for the condition/diagnosis and covered under your plan
确保客户接受的治疗是医学必需，且属于保单计划的福利范畴
- To ensure GBG will be billed directly for services, avoiding the need to pay-and-claim.
确保医院给予客户直付服务，避免事后理赔申请
- To obtain discounts under our network providers
确保客户能享有网络医院提供的折扣

What should we know about Pre-Authorization? 对事先授权，我们需要有什么认识？

Pre-authorization does not guarantee full reimbursement. Health insurance policies are designed to reimburse only those claims that are “medically necessary”. In order for a treatment, service, or drug to be “medically necessary”, it must:

事先授权不能代表全额理赔。本保险计划的基本原则是保障医学必需的医疗费用。判定某治疗、医疗服务或药物是否是医学必需的，必须满足以下要求：

- Be essential in treating the patient’s injury or illness 与伤病所必需且相关的治疗项目
- Not exceed the amount of care needed to provide safe and adequate treatment 不存在安全范围外的过度治疗
- Be prescribed by a physician 由医师推荐的治疗处方
- Not be Experimental or Investigative 非试验性的、研究性的项目

What if I do not get the pre-authorization? 没有事先授权会怎么样？

Failure to obtain pre-authorization for certain treatments or procedures will result in a 40% of penalty co-payment in the normal benefits.

未获得事先授权，将会在保险范围内的医疗费用中产生额外 40% 的自付比例。

How long does the pre-authorization process take? 事先授权需花费多长时间?

The member should anticipate an average of 5 business days to complete a non-emergency pre-authorization.

对于非紧急案件的授权，客户需至少提前 5 个工作日联系 GBG 提交授权申请。

In the event of an emergency, pre-authorization is not required, but the member should contact GBG within 48 hours after the treatments or the procedures.

对于紧急案件，在治疗之前，无需获取 GBG 的担保函，但是客户需要在接受治疗后的 48 小时内告知 GBG。

How do I start the pre-authorization? 如何进行事先授权?

The pre-authorization process can be initiated by completing the pre-authorization request form which can be downloaded by accessing Alltrust website www.yongcheng.com or through dialing hotline 400-613-8901. Initial clinical notes and diagnostic reports to support the medical necessity of the request are required. Depending on the complexity of the service being requested, additional information may be required as well, such as information on prior treatments etc. Failing to submit supplementary documents could result in delay of the authorization or rejection. The provider may decline to provide direct billing service with GBG.

事先授权的申请，首先填写授权申请表格。该表格可以从 Alltrust 官网 www.yongcheng.com 中下载，或拨打热线电话 400-613-8901 获取。填写好后，请将其和初始的病历，诊断检查报告等所有相关文件一并提交。根据案件的复杂程度，可能仍需要进一步材料，如既往就诊记录等。提供的事先授权材料不完整，可能会导致审核结果的延误，或无法批复，医疗机构可能会拒绝提供直付服务。
